MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
Chairman, National Intelligence Council

FROM: John N. McMahon
Executive Director

SUBJECT: Briefing to PFIAB

1. In talking to Fred Demech today, he indicated that the analytical and political task force of the PFIAB was planning to meet on Monday, 8 February at 10:00 a.m. in room 340 OE0B to discuss among themselves the analytical process. At the last minute, i.e., this afternoon, it was determined that they would like to have briefings emphasizing the Third World, as well as how we go about the analytical process with particular reference to competitive analysis. They briefly thought that the task force would travel to State, CIA and DIA but then decided to have CIA come down. I suggested to Fred that Bob Gates and his personnel could address the analytical process as well as address current events in Central America, Africa and the Near East, and that I would ask Harry Rowen to address the process of how an NIE is born and how he handles competitive analysis and differing views. Fred thought this was fine and we have so established a firm date. Request addressees assume the action.

2. Demech thought members present would be: Abshire, Jaworski, Luce, Seabury, Weiss and Leo Cherne.
